Classical & Mathematical School.

THE subscriber proposes to open in the city of Washington, on the 13th of September, a Classical and Mathematical School of a high order. For this purpose he has secured a central and very desirable location on the south side of F street, three doors west from 13th.

The number of pupils will be limited to twenty. To these he will devote his exclusive attention, in preparing them for college or for business and professional pursuits.

It is the design to make this a permanent Classical and Mathematical School, with a number so limited that each pupil may receive a large share of the teacher's attention; and the result of his own experience and that of others conviace him that he can in this way accomplish much more for their mental and moral improvement, and for their thorough and rapid progress in study, than can be done in a school of a larger number or of a more miscellaneous character.

From the views expressed to the subscriber by intelligent persons, it is believed there are many in this city who desire the establishment of such a school at the present time; and all of his energies, guided by his past experience in the instruction of youth, will be devoted to making it, in all respects, worthy of the confidence and patronage of those who may be disposed to place their sons under his charge. Terms, per quarter, $12.50.

SHADES OF CHARACTER,

OR THE INFANT PILGRIM. OR THE INFANT PILGRIM.

DY ANNE WOODROFFE, author of "Michael Kemp." In two volumes. R. Carter & Brothers.

"A charming book, full of deep, true, and glowing sentiment, with lively glimpses of character, pen-portraits and sketches, which keep the interest ever alive, and withal wise instruction is so happily blended that the pleasure of the book is only equalled by its profit. It is a better book than "The Wide, Wide World," which has been so widely and justly popular, and we are sure that those who read this will be glad that we have called their attention to it."—

THE LOST SENSES: DEAFNESS AND BLIND NESS. By Dr. Kitto.

"This is a work of great interest, from one of the most learned and accomplished writers of the age, revealing the mysterles of the world in which those live who have been deprived of the sense of sight or hearing. Ever since his boyhood, for more than thirty years, Dr. Kitto has passed a life of great activity as a scholar, in a state of the most intense deafness to which any living creature can be subjected. His account of himself, and of his discriminating remarks on the condition of the blind, (James Mitchell, Laurs Bridgeman, and others,) are replete with profound thought on the interesting phenomenon presented in the progress of their mental training."—Christian Observer.

The Temperance Law-A Serious Riot.

Boston, Sept. 12. Yesterday, at Watertown, Z. Porter, of the Cambridge Cattle Fair Hotel, and Saml. Knights, of the Watson House, were brought before Justice White, on complaint for selling liquor. Quite a row ensued, in which the justice was insulted, and some of the government witnesses compelled to fice for safety. A man named Richardson, said to be employed as an informer by the temperance people, drew a knife and pistol, when he was knocked down and disarmed. A complaint was then made against him for carrying concealed weapons, and he was required to give bail for trial. Knights, for selling liquor, was acquitted; and the trial of Porter was postponed. The court adjourned amidst great excitement and confusion.

We are assured, by persons who were on the spot at the time, that this break is the result of pure negligence upon the part of those persons having charge of the super-intendence of that portion of the line. We have more than once, of late, heard complaints from persons who are in some way interested in this work, similar to the above. We therefore hope that the present case will be thoroughly investigated by the proper authorities, and if true, that the guilty parties may be removed, so that a sim-
